24th February 2011

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Next week will see the beginning of March and the school would like to inform you of the schedule for this month. You and your children are invited to participate.

Date	Description	Time and Notes
Friday, 4th March 2011	Carnival Celebrations at School in the morning.  School Development Plan Meeting is to be organised for the school staff , so the pupils will be dismissed at 12.00pm.	On this day, children can come to school in their Carnival costumes, casual clothes or tracksuit. Parents should ensure that the costumes are decent and appropriate for an educational institution. Students indecently dressed will be sent back home. Heavy make up or scary masks are not allowed.  School finishes at 12.00pm
7th & 8th March 2011	Carnival Holidays	No School
Wednesday, 9th March 2011	Ash Wednesday.  Mass at 9.15am	School resumes. Please ensure that children are punctual for school and that they come in full uniform.  An animated Mass will be celebrated at the Parish Church.
Tuesday, 15th March 2011	SEQDA talk for parents. Speaker: Ms Margaret Abela	This is a very important talk for parents about substance misuse. Time: 9.00 – 10.00am Venue: School hall
Monday, 21st March 2011	Parents' Day 8.30 – 14.30 hours	Parents will be given an appointment by class teachers to come to school and discuss the students' performance. This is an opportunity for you parents to discuss your children's progress. So make it a point to come on the day which is totally dedicated to you.  Students will not be allowed in the school premises during the parents' day.
Thursday 31st March 2011	National Day	No School

The school administration and staff are always trying to do their utmost for the benefit of your children. Please adhere to the school rules and encourage your children to do the same. Your collaboration and co-operation is much appreciated. We look forward to seeing you in our events.

We would to inform you that those parents of Year 6 students who would like to apply for the Music option are requested to do so immediately. Applications are available from the school.

Yours' Truly,

Ms. E. Spiteri
Head of School
